

Here at Karate England we take your privacy seriously and will only use your personal information to administer your karate License and to provide you with the services and products you have requested from us.

We do not pass data onto any other companies as part of our services and will not share your data with any other organisation.

Your data is used solely to improve the services at Karate England.